

Anatomy & Physiology 6th October 2010

This Study Day is for newcomers and those already working in Decontamination Services.

Designed for those trainees undertaking a professional role in Decontamination Services including those studying for the Technical Certificate in Decontamination as well as Technical Members wishing to upgrade to full membership to the IDSc. Course content includes valuable information on the human body systems and their links to causes of illness.

The cost for the above Study Day is £125.00 per person.